

Policy to Convey Consumer Disputes to Equifax where GObackgrounds.com is Not in Error

Pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act (F.C.R.A.) § 611(f)(2)(B)(ii):

If GObackgrounds.com receives a notice from a consumer of a dispute concerning the completeness or accuracy of any item of the information contained in a consumer report on such consumer produced by GObackgrounds.com, we will, within five (5) business days of receiving the notice, and free of charge determine whether the item of information is incomplete or inaccurate as a result of an act or omission of GObackgrounds.com.

However, if we determine that the item of information is not incomplete or inaccurate as a result of an act or omission of GObackgrounds.com, we will convey the notice of the dispute, together with all relevant information provided by the consumer, to Equifax who provided GObackgrounds.com with the information that is the subject of the dispute via their facsimile number of 1(888) 742-1016.
